

Oregon Teacher Standards and Practices Commission

Teacher Preparedness Survey

Section 4. Please answer the following questions in your own words.

1. What strengths and unique attributes does John Educator possess that makes her / him well prepared to teach effectively ?

2. What skills, abilities, knowledge or experiences would have made John Educator better prepared to begin teaching ?

3. Please provide us with any additional comments that you be usefule for the faculty and administrators of Oregon teacher preparation programs.

Survey Naviagation Intructions

You are currently on page 4 of a 4-page survey. Please select from the following options:

- The [Previous Section] button will retain all information entered for this page, and proceed to the previous page.
- The [EXIT Survey] button will discard the information that you have entered on this page, and exit the survey.
- The [Stop for Now] button will retain all information entered for this page, and exit the survey. You will be able to access this survey until either you submit the survey OR the survey closing date (Thursday, February 24, 2011) has been passed.
- The [Submit Completed Survey] button will retain all information entered for this page, and mark this survey as completed; you will not be able to access this survey after that point.

Survey closes Thursday, February 24, 2011

Previous Section

EXIT Survey

Stop for Now

Submit Completed Survey

This survey is coordinated by the Oregon Teacher Standards and Practices Commission.
465 Commercial St. NE, Salem, OR 97301
web site: Oregon.gov/TSPC

Current date is Tuesday, January 25, 2011